VOCABULARY

Complete the statements with: amusement - exciting - headline - classical - movies - email - talkshow - social media - relaxed.

1. Dr Phill is a popular _____ in the USA and other countries.
2. I sent her an _____ but she never replied.
3. Listening to _____ music makes me feel _____.
4. Do you like horror _____? They're not my cup of tea.
5. Look at this news _____. It's about a new project in town.
6. What's your favorite _____ _____network? Facebook or Instagram?
7. Reading mangas is really _____.
8. Have you ever been to an _____ park?

FUNCTION

Match the statements with what they express.

1. It's a great idea. Let's do it. _____
2. I can't really believe that she won a million dollar. _____
3. He lost all his money on video games. He feels depressed. _____

a. Expressing emotion

b. Expressing interest

c. Expressing surprise

GRAMMAR

Put the verbs in the correct tense.

1. If I have time after work, I _____ (go) jogging with some friends.
2. What _____ (you/do) next weekend?
3. They _____ (just/arrive) from a long trip.
4. _____ (you/ever/be) to the new mall?
5. Amine _____ (never/see) this movie before.
6. Next summer holiday, Sara _____ (visit) some friends in Barcelona. She _____ (already/buy) the plane tickets.

GRAMMAR

Fill in with: in - on - at.

1. She'll be here _____ noon.
2. He is never late for school. He always comes ____ time.
3. _____ March, they're going to travel to Dakhla.
4. Where's your phone? Is it _____ your pocket?
5. The man laying _____ the floor has just had a heart attack.
6. They're not _____ work. They might be _____ home.

GRAMMAR

Fill in with: too - enough - too much - too many.

1. This new game console is _____ expensive. I can't spend all my money on it.
2. His new smartphone costs _____ money. He always buys fancy phones.
3. Alia is not old _____ to drive a car. She's still 16 years old.
4. She didn't have _____ time to answer all the questions.
5. They invited _____ people to the party. However, everyone enjoyed it.