GRAMMAR: If I had…, I would…

I would buy a new smartphone.

I would help the poor.

I could travel the world.

I might start a business.

GRAMMAR: Conditional Type 2 (The Unreal Present)

If + Simple Past + Would / Could / Might + Verb

If I had a million dollars, I would travel the world.

Would / Could / Might + Verb + If + Simple Past

I would travel the world If I had a million dollars.

Use conditional type 2 for imaginative situations in the present. It's called the unreal present.

GRAMMAR: Conditional Type 2 (The Unreal Present)

If I were a millionaire, I would travel the world.

If + were + Would + Verb

While using conditional type 2, always use “if + subject + were”.

GRAMMAR: Conditional Type 2 (The Unreal Present)

Put the verbs in the correct form.

1. If people used public transportations, there would be less pollution.
2. He (sort) his trash, if he (be) smart.
3. If big corporations (care) more about the environment, pollution from factories (not increase) so fast.
4. If I (be) the city mayor, I (pass) harder regulations on cars and motorcycles.
5. What (you/do) if you (be) the city mayor?

GRAMMAR: Conditional Type 2 (The Unreal Present)

Put the verbs in the correct form.

1. If people used public transportations, there would be less pollution.
2. He would sort his trash, if he were smart.
3. If big corporations cared more about the environment, pollution from factories would not increase so fast.
4. If I were the city mayor, I would pass harder regulations on cars and motorcycles.
5. What would you do if you were the city mayor?